Hangul Writing Workbook

Learn to write the Korean alphabet, step by step

How to use this workbook

1. Look at the dark letter in the first box of each row.
2. Follow the stroke-order boxes. The red line is the next stroke, and the dot shows where it starts.
3. Trace the light gray letters.
4. Write on your own in the empty boxes. The dashed cross helps you keep the letter centered.

Two simple rules work for almost every letter: write top to bottom, and left to right.

Romanization follows the official Revised Romanization of Korean. Sound tips are approximate. Listen to native speakers when you can.

Building syllable blocks

Korean letters are grouped into square blocks. Each block starts with a consonant. If a block starts with a vowel sound, write the silent ㅇ first.

가	고	간	아
ㄱ + ㅏ	ㄱ + ㅗ	ㄱ + ㅏ + ㄴ	ㅇ + ㅏ
tall vowel: consonant on the left	flat vowel: consonant on top	final consonant goes underneath	silent ㅇ holds the place
